

Module: The Law of the European Union

Lecturer: M.Sc. Monika Żuchowska

Semester: Winter/Summer

Hours: 15

Type: Consultation

Credit: Paper work

ECTS: 4

General characteristics of integration concepts in Europe. Treaties establishing ECSC, EEC, EAEC and Treaty on EU – general characteristics. EU Parliament, Commission, Council – structure, powers and procedures, acts. The Court of Justice of the European Communities – structure, decision making - procedure, jurisdiction, forms of action. The Court of First Instance – structure, jurisdiction, forms of action. European Central Bank and the Eurosystem – general characteristics; European System of Central Banks, structure, tasks, decision making; European Investment Bank – role and organization of the EIB, objectives. Internal Market – free movement of persons, asylum policy, immigration; free movement of services, objectives; free movement of goods, rules governing the movement of goods, common customs tariff, abolition of border formalities, strengthening the external frontiers; free movement of capital, liberalization of capital markets, European financial area, economic and monetary union.